

JFE Calls for Manuscript Submissions

Journal of Finance and Economics (JFE) is a peer-reviewed open-accessed journal, which is quarterly published by todayscience.org on behalf of Science and Education Centre of North America (SECNA).

This journal publishes original research papers in the fields of general theories of economics, macroeconomics, econometrics, global economies, global political economy, global finance, financial economics, financial theories, corporate finance, financial analysis and treasury management, policy making and other relevant topics, both theoretical and empirical. The journal is currently published in both printed and online versions. The full text is free access and downloads from online databases.

We are seeking submissions for forthcoming issues. All papers should be written in professional English. The length of 4000-15000 words is suggested. A paper template of accepted submission is available on our website <http://www.todayscience.org/authorguide.html>. All manuscripts should be prepared in MS-word format, and submitted via email: jfe@todayscience.org in one way ONLY.

Please well record your date and way of paper submission.

If your article is rejected after reviewing, the correspondence author will know this result within 7 weeks from the date of paper submission; if your article is qualified and finally published, it is expected to be published within 7 months from the date of paper submission.

Papers Selected and Published Process

- a) Upon receipt of paper submission, the Editor sends an E-mail of acknowledgement to the correspondence author within 7 days. If you fail to receive such a confirmation, your email/submission may be missing. Please contact the Editor in charge, at your first convenience.
- b) Peer reviews. We use double-blind system for peer reviewing; the reviewers' identities remain anonymous to the authors. The paper will be peer reviewed by three experts: one is the editor of JFE, and the other two are external reviewers. The review process may take 2-6 weeks.
- c) Notification of the results of review by e-mail.
- d) If the paper is accepted, the author(s) revise paper accordingly based on comments from reviewers.
- e) The author(s) proofread the edited paper, and pay publication fees. Publication of an article in JFE is not contingent upon the author's ability to pay the fees.
- f) After publication, the correspondence author will receive two free copies of printed journals from Toronto, Canada.

Requirements and copyrights

Submission of an article implies that the work described has not been publicly published previously, neither is under consideration for publication elsewhere, and that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out. And submission implies that, if accepted, it will not be published in the same form, in English or in any other languages, without the written consent of the Publisher. Editor(s) reserve the rights to edit or otherwise after all contributions, but authors will receive proofs for approval before publication.

The authors retain copyrights for articles published in JFE, with first publication right granted to the journal. The journal/publisher is not responsible for subsequent uses of the work. It is the authors' responsibility to bring an infringement action if so desired by the authors.

The journal publishes theoretical articles and empirical studies in a wide range of economic and financial areas, from general theories of economics, macroeconomics, econometrics, global economics, global political economy, industrial economics, economic growth, ecological economics, environmental economics, to economic and/or financial history, global finance, financial economics, financial theories, corporate finance, financial analysis and treasury management, policy making and other relevant topics. Both theoretical and empirical works are welcome.
